L. ACCJC Self Study

Liana Koeppel

1. Eileen and Liana attended the ASCCC Accreditation Institute. The focus was on accreditation and equity.
2. The Accreditation Standards have changed. This will affect the next Self-Study Report.
3. Every School will get an accreditation coach to assist the institution in the accreditation process.

M. CTE Liaison

Lisa Clark

1. Automotive Technology received continued accreditation with accolades. They had problems getting funding for the accreditation process. This is because they did not have a distinct budget.
2. Dean Reiland is looking for volunteers for Strong Workforce Development Committee to review grant funds.

N. Distance Education

Kathleen McAlister

1. DE will be having a meeting next week where they will be working on a draft of the Distance Education Plan. After committee approval, Kathleen would like to present a summary of the draft to the Senate Body. It will be distributed for comments (via a survey). The committee hopes to get the plan approved by the end of the semester.
2. The budget was reviewed at the District Technology Committee. Funding was being supplanted with One-time Funds. There was a discussion regarding add codes. Add Codes can't be active while the waitlist is active. Instructors can request for the waitlist to be turned off so that add codes can be used.
3. Add codes are active for up to five days after the initial use by a student.

VII. President's Report and Committee Appointments

A. Appointments:

1. Jenelle Herman – LGBTQ+ liaison, M (Liana)/S (Michael B.)? U
2. Craig is going to put out a broad call for the VPI Hiring committee. He will have names to put forward at the next senate meeting. He will provide his nomination for Senate approval at the same meeting.
3. Craig announced that nominations/selection for the Outstanding Full-time faculty, Outstanding Adjunct Faculty and Charger award will be held on April 2. This will require a special meeting at ~2p or 2:30p. If possible, please be early to be part of the process. This date allows for the submission of selected individual's names to be placed onto the commencement program.

B. Craig worked with Deidre to finalize the language for the Guided Pathways Co-chair call. The call should be out next week. The hope is to approve the co-chair by March 12.

C. The EFMP meeting was on Friday. There were some major changes to the facilities component. This was based on input received during forums. Craig suggested that the EFMP team reach out to the stake holders that would be affected by new or moved buildings and facilities. The EFMP team is presenting to senate April 2.

D. Richard Fee has resigned from his position and is electing to use retreat rights to a faculty position. Craig informed the Senate that this process is supposed to go through senate.

E. CBF and DCC have approved a number of One-time Funding monies. This still needs to be approved by the Board of Trustees. Professional Development will receive roughly $300K.

VIII. Faculty Issues – Unfinished Business

Transfer Center (15 min)

Penny Gabourie

The Transfer Center demonstrated their new Hub. This is available on student access Canvas. This includes online counseling, transfer 101, and other student resources. May 12 is the Transfer Center celebration event.

IX. Faculty Issues – New Business

A. SLO Handbook Second Read (5 minutes)

Jennifer Coopman

The new SLO Handbook was presented at the last meeting for review by the senate. There was a point of clarification regarding professional development in the handbook referring to student or faculty professional development. The Senate voted on approval for the handbook. M (Brydges)/S (Steven)/ U, one abstention, Jason.

B. Evaluation of Distance Education Faculty (5 minutes)

Kathleen McAllister

Kathleen gave an update of the D.E. plan. There are no clear guidelines for evaluation of DE courses. Kathleen has been opening and closing courses for evaluation. A discussion followed regarding the evaluation process per the current contract. There is an evaluation tool, Evalukit, that is available that could aid in the evaluation process. Kathleen asked senate for approval to use Evalukit.

C. Graduation Sash for Speech and Debate Team (5 Minutes)

Liana Koeppel

Liana submitted a request for the senate to approve graduation sashes for the Speech and Debate team. The senate discussed the appropriateness of approving said sashes. It was decided that because the team is tied to curriculum the sashes are appropriate. M (Julia)/S (Michael)/U

D. Graduation Sash for International Students Program (5 Minutes)

Yongmi Han

Yong presented a proposed sash for the ISP with rationale (3.0 or better GPA) why the sash would be appropriate. M (Michael)/ S (Kathleen). Bryan called a point of order asking if the Senate has the authority to rule on these sashes. There was a discussion regarding the role of senate to approve sashes worn for a variety of reasons. Jason proposed an amendment to approve the sash for all graduating international students regardless of GPA. M (Michael)/ S (Kathleen)/, one abstention, Victoria.

E. Student Per Diem Increase (10 minutes)

Liana Koeppel

Employee per diem is ~$55, student per diem is $25. The student per diem has categorical designation, i.e. dinner = $12.50. There was a discussion about what an increase would look like and how it would impact the faculty per diem. The sense of the Senate was supportive for proposing a student per diem increase to the Board of Trustees.

Steven made a motion to extend the Senate Meeting 10 Minutes. M/S/U

F. Test Guided Pathways Self-Assessment Document Discussion (10 Minutes)
